

The truth has no borders.

Filmmaker Eliaichi Kimaro

will screen her documentary, A Lot Like You, which explores Kimaro's mixed-race heritage and situates her own personal family history within a social, historical, and political context of African decolonization, transnational relations, race, class, and gender violence.

7 pm, Monday, February 4
Stamper Library on the Burroughs Campus

Students (grades 9 - 12) and all adult members of the ISSL community are welcome.
Please RSVP by Thursday, January 31 to dharris@jburroughs.org

Hosted by the Board of Trustees Diversity Committee
John Burroughs School • 755 South Price Road • St. Louis, Missouri • 63124